“ One of my dearest memories ever was made possible by my Uncle Joe. It was my first experience of snow falling and it happened to have been while looking up at the circus circus clown in Reno. I remedy that trip being really fun. And we always had fun as a family at Grandmas and Papas during Thanksgivings and Christmas, playing poker and betting with quarters dimes and nickels. My Uncle Joe was always kind. Rest In Peace Uncle Joe.

My very first memory is of “Joey”going off to Kindergarten at not quite 5 years old and me at 3 crying because I didn’t want him to leave me. He was my very first playmate and I loved him. He was always having an adventure that I wanted to be part of and was Joe was always my admired hero. His sister Dorothy ❤️
