“ I just learned of Mr. Woodwoth’s passing. To Mel and Jo my most heartfelt sympathies. What a beautiful soul. I enjoyed every one of our dental visits more than you know. He was a delightful man who loved you all and relished all the time he had with his family. Know that you all are in my prayers. He is at home with lovely Barbara.

“ Your father will be sadly missed. He was a special person and baker. Glad I got a chance to know him when he came in to visit Barbara when I did her hair at University. Lord bless you the memories you have to cherish. Betty McHodgkins

“ To Jim's Family... We are so saddened to read of Jim's passing. I competed with Jim at the State Fair for many years. I was just part of the competitive family that showed up every year to compete and we loved every minute of it. His pies were masterpieces of culinary art. His canned goods were too pretty to open and eat!! And the rest of his entries spoke for themselves as he became "King of the Kitchen". As I remember, his honey entries were the only ones out there, all Blue Ribbon entries. Judges do not have to give Blues in classes where there is only one entry, but Jim's honey ALWAYS got Blues. When I entered pies, he gave me some advice...to roll my pie dough in pancake mix (verses regular flour) because it made the finished product taste better to the judge. I took it to heart, and in one class one year, I received a Blue over Jim!! If you could accomplish that. you had your place in State Fair history as far as competition went. I no longer compete, but will remember Jim with fondness in my heart. He was very Special!!! May you feel the presence of the Lord close to you through this difficult time...
