

Robert Anthony Sowles

October 13, 1996 - March 24, 2019

Robert Anthony Sowles, age 22, of Pueblo West, CO passed away unexpectedly on March 24, 2019. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Walter Sowles, Grandmother, Vesta Halcomb and close friend, Steve Gladbach. He is survived by his daughter, Arabella Cuadrado; parents, Neal and Darlene Sowles; sister, Danielle Sowles; grandfather, Frank Halcomb; grandmother, Lela Sowles; nephew, Mason Sowles-Hasenack; uncles, Scott (Teri) Sowles, Duane (Judi) Halcomb, Darin (Mendy) Halcomb and Darryl (Lisa) Halcomb; his greatest love and high school sweetheart, Tyanna Cuadrado; childhood friends, Jordan Dugard and Ty Butcher, and close friends Shirley and Orion Paiz; many other friends too numerous to mention. Robert was working for Rocla Concrete Tie and attending Pueblo Community College. Robert was very charming, extremely kind and had the biggest heart. He was mischievous and loved to have fun. He grew up as a Boy Scout in Troop 3 and made several close lifelong friends. He loved spending time in the mountains - hiking, mountain biking, and camping. He enjoyed skiing and water-skiing. He also enjoyed ukulele, drawing with pastels, r/c cars and drones. He loved hanging out at the Pueblo Reservoir and Liberty Point. He met many people on his short journey in this life and he loved all his friends very much. Robert left a warm impression on everyone he ever met and will be greatly missed by all. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made in honor to Robert's daughter, Arabella through Tyanna Cuadrado or to Christlife Ministries. Thank you so much for your thoughts and prayers.

“ What I remember the most about Robert is his passion. He was passionate about learning and knowing. He was a curious boy that wasn't afraid to question the world around him. I remember watching him as he would turn something over in his head, thinking about it, mulling it over. Eventually, he would have a slew of questions that he needed answered. I am thankful that I got to know Robert and his family. He will be missed by so many people.
