In Loving Memory of Stacey Lin Gray

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me;
I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here, in your heart.

-David Romano

Stacey's Sister, Drenda, is my Mother. Stacey was my Mom's youngest Brother and much like a big Brother to me. Growing up, visiting Beaver, was always so much fun for me. I looked forward to spending time with my Uncle Stacey more than anything else in my young life. Uncle Stacey got to come spend time with us in Woodward at Christmas and during Summer break sometimes, we had so much fun. Uncle Stacey could always make me laugh and smile, especially when him and Uncle Stan would hold me down and tickle me until I said "UNCLE". At Christmas they would take me out driving around and tell me that the blinking red lights on top of radio towers were Rudolph's nose! I will have precious memories of him to last my lifetime. I was blessed to have him as an Uncle and I will never forget how much he meant to our family. No one will ever take the spot he holds in my heart. He is in God's loving arms and will never be sick again.
