“ To the family of Tony, I was saddened to recently learn of Tony's passing, and offer my condolences to you all. It was always a pleasure to drive up to Currie ave. on my way to visit my mother Rose Romero who is still residing at 834 Currie and see Tony sitting on his porch, he always waved and smiled, and if he noticed something unusual about my mothers house he would not hesitate to call me over and discuss it. I have fond memories of growing up on Currie Avenue, and Tony Catalano and his family will always be part of those memories.

Best Regards,

Dave Romero and Family
