

Wynoma Sparks-Grant

July 26, 1938 - October 22, 2019

Wynoma Sparks-Grant passed away peacefully at Parkview Hospital in Pueblo after a long illness. Wynoma was born July 26, 1938 in Raymondville, TX, to Raymond Nathan Lewis and Valda Lewis–Stith, the second of three children. She was a long time Pueblo resident after moving from Concord, CA, in 1960 with her husband, Carl Sparks and their four children. Wynoma and Carl adopted their fifth child later in Pueblo. After Carl passed away in 1994, Wynoma married David Grant in 1998. Wynoma was a full-time homemaker most of her life, but worked for a time at Sharmar Nursing Home and Furr's Cafeteria in Pueblo. She enjoyed bowling and square dancing and later, when her health began to deteriorate, she took up knitting. Wynoma loved Christmas, effortlessly reveling in and celebrating the season. Wynoma was preceded in death by her parents, her older sister, Nathaline (Natalie) DeBeaumont, her younger brother, Benny Ray Lewis, her first husband, Carl Sparks and her son, Donald Sparks. Wynoma is survived by her second husband, David Grant, her children, Lorrie Anderson (Tim), Dennis Sparks (Michelle), Daniel Sparks (Theresa), David Sparks (Marjorie), her ten grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. Upon her death, Wynoma donated her remains to Science Care for medical research.
